Rockefeller Letter Called Hoax of Reds

By a Star Staff Correspondent

THOMASVILLE, Ga., Feb. 19.

—The White House brands as "a complete fabrication by the Communists" a purported letter from Nelson Rockefeller to President Eisenhower recommending that the United States use economic aid to win political and military domination of recipient countries.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty noted that Communist propagandists have "made quite a to-do" about the purported letter since it was published in the East German Communist newspaper Neues Deutschland on February 15.

Mr. Rockefeller is a former special assistant to the President for co-ordination of foreign policy activities.

Mr. Hagerty said he had done some intensive checking of files and had talked personally with Mr. Rockefeller. As a result, he said, he found that "the purported letter was a complete fabrication by the Communists."

He said no such letter ever had been written by Mr. Rockefeller or by any other associate of the President, and that "such policy ever has been proposed to or entertained by President."

October 30, 1962

Dear John:

On behalf of all members of our Governors' Conference Committee on Civil Defense and Post-Attack Recovery, I want to express our grateful thanks for your full and frank briefing last Saturday. It provided us a most essential background for the Committee's deliberations. No other member of the Administration could have given us such a clean, concise and informative presentation of the situation.

I can well understand the tremendous responsibility you are carrying in these critical days. I am therefore especially appreciative that you found the time to meet with us personally.

With warm admiration for the splendid job you are doing for the Government and for the Nation,

Sincerely,

Dear Nelson:

STAT

[redacted] has completed his work for me and I wanted to let you know how very much I appreciate your kindness in permitting him to come down to Washington and help us out. As is always the case, he did a magnificent job and made a very major contribution. He is now back with you unproselytized, as promised, but probably tired as a result of his commuting and doing two strenuous tasks simultaneously.

Thank you for your help.

With very best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) JOHN A. McCONE
